

Consulting

Over the last twelve years, IEEM Italy and IEM USA has established itself as one of the most successful Food and Beverage event management and exhibition firms. With our expertise and solid team of professionals and supporting staff, we can provide consultation for F&B events, trade listings, seminars, product launches, and press conferences internationally. With our two branch offices and global network of contacts we can handle all scopes of services, from creative to technical and logistical elements, that you may require for the successful execution of your event.

Marchese Antinori and Melvin Dick of Southern Wine & Spirits